Report

IQAC & Placement Cell in Collaboration with LightHouse Community's Foundation conducted a 12 days soft skill programme.

Foresight College of Commerce in collaboration with LightHouse Community Foundation conducted a 12 days Soft Skills Programme for the students of BBA / BBA-CA / BCOM and BBA-IB in college campus.

It is a very popular term nowadays, used to indicate personal transversal competences such as social aptitudes, language and communication capability, friendliness and ability of working in a team and other personality traits that characterize relationships between people. Soft Skills are traditionally considered complementary to Hard Skills, which are the abilities to perform a certain type of task or activity. Soft Skills are strategic to be successful in personal and professional life and are essential for the students when they try to obtain any kind of job.

Enterprises generally hire new employees, in particular recent graduates, taking more in consideration their Soft Skills than their Hard Skills. This happens also for technical professions, because the company, in order to be competitive, needs to create good and effective teams and a collaborative working atmosphere. The departments of the college have organized various types of activities to develop the soft skills of the students enrolled with the institution. These activities of the departments and platforms available helped the learners to learn and acquire soft skills like Communication Skills, Presentation Skills, Written Communication, Interpersonal Skills, Creativity and Leadership etc. In order to improve the communicative abilities of the students they want to Communicate More Effectively.

Use Intentional Techniques to Build Stronger Relationships—Personal and Professional. ...The College Magazine to enhance the written communication of the students play a significant role. The students are given in depth lessons by organizing workshops, state level elocution competition, interfaculty debates and group discussions and expert talks of the quality speakers and the trainers throughout the academic year. These activities benefit the students to enhance the knowledge of use of language and its spoken aspect. It helped the students for their development of communication skills. To improve the Presentation Skills the departments conducted seminars for the students. The students get to participate and perform an active role in the Seminars. Topics are given to them to prepare and present to assess their performance. Every year the departments make the organization of such seminars a regular feature of the campus. The IQAC department conducts this kind of programme which helps the students to learn the presentation skills and enhances the creative capabilities among them. The Group Discussion is the routine practice of the campus may it be the part of the curriculum or not. They learn the art of argument which helps them in practical life ahead and thus develop interpersonal skills among themselves.

Plural

 The dogs chase the cat.

 "s" no "s"

In the present tense, nouns and verbs form plurals in opposite ways: nouns ADD an s to the singular form; verbs REMOVE the s from the singular form.

The agreement rules do, apply to the following helping verbs when they are used with a main verb: is-are, was-were, has-have, does-do.

- The girl is talking to me –
 - Girl – subject Singular
 - is talking – singular verb
- The girl was talking to me
 - Girl – subject Singular
 - was talking – singular verb
- The girl has talked to me
 - Girl – subject Singular
 - Has talked – singular verb
- He does the job
 - He – subject Singular
 - Does – singular verb

- The girls are talking to me
 - Girls – subject plural,
 - are talking – plural verb
- The girls were talking to me
 - Girls – subject plural,
 - were talking – plural verb
- The girls have talked to me
 - Girls – subject plural,
 - Have talked – plural verb
- They do the job
 - They – subject plural,
 - Do – plural verb

Examples

Single helping verb:

First helping verb in pair of helping verbs:

RULE NO 2

The number of the subject (singular or plural) is not changed by words that come between the subject and the verb.

One of the eggs is broken. Of the eggs is a prepositional phrase. The subject one and the verb are both singular. Mentally omit the prepositional phrase to make the subject verb agreement easier to make.

Principal
Foresight College of Commerce
Pune

Example

Look at this example.

Car is the singular subject. Was is the singular helping verb which agrees with car. If we aren't careful, however, we may mistakenly label riders as the subject since it is nearer to the verb than car is. If we choose the plural noun, riders, we will incorrectly select the plural verb were.

RULE NO 3

When a sentence begins with there is - there are / here is - here are, the subject and verb are inverted. After all that you have learned already, you will undoubtedly find this topic a relatively easy one!

The verb in such constructions is obviously is or are. The subject, however, does not come BEFORE the verb.

Instead, the subject in this kind of sentence comes AFTER the verb, so you must look for it AFTER the verb.

In this example, because the subject, book is singular, the verb must also be singular. If the subject is plural, however, then the verb must be plural.

In this example, because the subject, books is plural, the verb is also plural.

Remember: In here is – here are / there is – there are constructions, look for the subject AFTER the verb and choose a singular (is) or a plural (are) verb to agree with the subject.

MORE EXAMPLES:

- There is in many cities a desire to reduce traffic and pollution. [Desire is the subject of the verb is.]
- There are a stapler, two pens, four books, and a writing tablet on the desk. [Stapler, pens, books and writing tablet are the subjects of the verb are.]
- There were five books on the shelf. (were, agrees with the subject book)
- Here is the report you wanted. (is agrees with subject report)

RULE NO 4

Subjects don't always come before verbs in questions. Make sure you accurately identify the subject before deciding on the proper verb form to use.

Where are the pieces of this puzzle?

Foresight College of Commerce
Pune

Example #2:

More examples:

- Where are Joan and her daughters going? [Joan and her daughters are subjects of the verb are going]

RULE NO 5

If two subjects are joined by "and," they typically require a plural verb form.

The cow and the pig are jumping over the moon.

Example

More examples:

- Hard work and persistence are required in all rewarding accomplishments.
- Where are the pens and paper?

Subjects which include at least two nouns or pronouns connected by "and" are paired with plural verbs.

- the manager and the employees are
- the cats and the dog run
- the man and the woman are

The verb is singular if the two subjects separated by "and" refer to the same person or thing.

- Red beans and rice is my mother's favorite dish.

Principal
Foresight College of Communications
Pune

RULE NO 6

Or and nor as joiners work somewhat differently from and

In other words, - If the subjects are both singular and are connected by the words "or," "nor," "neither/nor," "either/or," and "not only/but also" the verb is singular.

Jessica or Christian is to blame for the accident.

Look at this sentence.

Two or more plural subjects joined by or (or nor) would naturally take a plural verb to agree.

Subjects joined by OR or NOR take a verb that agrees with the last subject.

- Neither Bob nor George is leaving.
- Neither Bob nor his friends are leaving.
- Either the bears or the lion has escaped from the zoo.
- Neither the lion nor the bears have escaped from the zoo.
